Father Kunkel returned yesterday from Carlsbad where he conducted Christmas services in the American and Mexican Catholic churches.

An at home and musicale will be given Friday evening, January 1st, from 3 to 10 o'clock at Mr. W. P. Lewis' home on South Highlands, for the benefit of the Catholic church. The musical program will begin at 8 p. m. and a rare treat is in store for all who attend. Everybody is welcome. t3

Woman's Club Musicals.

Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the Woman's Club will give its yearly musicale at the school house auditorium. A cordial invitation is extended to every one. This musicale is under the direction of Mrs. D. M. Downes and promises to be a most enjoyable affair.

A Catholic Hospital. We are told by Rev. Father Herbert that he has received good encouragement from a community of Sisters, that they will be able to undertake the charge of a hospital or Sanitarium here in Roswell in not a far distant time. This is indeed very encouraging, as such an institution would be of great value to the city.

A Delightful Evening.

Misses Elsie and Irma Totzek, Ida Odem and Alda Smith entertained a number of their young friends Monday night. The rooms were artistically decorated with cut flowers, mistletoe and holly. "Pit" was indulged in after which a delicious four course luncheon was served. Miss Irma Totzek presided over the punch bowl. At a late hour the young folks departed and all declared it to be one of the most enjoyable events of the season.

The Mayor's Office.

The mayor and city clerk's office room is now room 19 in the Texas block. The city council will also hold its meetings in this room. The regular meetings of the council will be the second day of each month and the third Thursday of each month.

Sunday School Christmas Party.

The Episcopal Sunday School had its Christmas festival yesterday at St. Andrew's Hall, from 2:30 to 5 p. m. Quite a large number of ladies were present and assisted the Rector in making the occasion a happy and successful one.

The young folks had Christmas games of various sorts and competed for a number of prizes, the successful ones being Rosa Rogers, Perry Bean, Dabney Jackson and Marie Kinsinger.

After the games the school had a tea party, and cake, tea and sweetmeats and fruit were served at the tables.

The grown folks then partook of "the cup which cheers but does not inebriate," and all voted the occasion the most enjoyable in the history of the school. Among those present were Mesdames Beeson, Jackson, Morrow, Kinsinger, Boone, Hinson, Robb, Buffum, Kipling, Puckett, and Hardwicke; Misses Johnson, Kingston, Cowell, Littlefield, Hinson, Carlton, Faison and Reed.
